

David the Shepherd Boy

The Bible tells us about David the shepherd boy who looked after his father's sheep. David loved to sing songs to God.

David looked after his father's sheep. They liked to eat green grass and drink fresh water and when he called to them they followed him.

He sat down under a shady tree to watch his sheep. He loved to pray and sing to God and he loved God with all his heart. God was with David.

David knew every sheep by name. At night he would find a safe place for his sheep to sleep. He counted them to see that they were all there.

Sometimes he had to find a lost sheep or carry a sick lamb. David was a good shepherd. He loved his sheep and they loved him.

He watched out for wild animals that might hurt his sheep. David prayed and asked God to keep his precious lambs safe.

While he watched his sheep David put a stone in his sling. Wheeeee! The stone went a long way and it was fun.

David sang songs, called Psalms, to God. "When I am afraid I will trust in you. I know you are always with me." His Psalms are in the Bible.
